Funds for Educational Schemes in Assam

38. SHRI DWIJENDRA NATH SHARMAH: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government nave granted any funds to Assam under the various educational schemes and the programmes during the last three years;

(b) if so, the details thereof scheme-wise; and

(c) the details of the achievements made so far in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI MD. ALIASHRAF FATMI): (a) and (b) The financial assistance provided to Assam by the Departments of Elementary Education & Literacy and Secondary & Higher Education of the Ministry of Human Resource Development during the years 2002-03,2003-04 and 2004-05 is given in the enclosed statement, (see below)

(c) The Department of Secondary & Higher Education has a significant presence in Assam. There is an NT at Guwahati, 2 Central Universities, a National Institute of Technology and a number of Kendriya Vidyaiayas and Navodyaya Vidyaiayas in Assam. All these organizations spend their entire budget. Assam has been assisted in a big way for the appointment of Hindi teachers. Besides, both Kendriya Hindi Sansthan and Central Institute of Indian Languages have their regional centres in Assam.

The scheme of Sarva ShikshaAbhiyan (SSA) is being implemented in all 23 districts of Assam to achieve the goal of universalisation of elementary education in the State. This has resulted in new schools (primary & upper primary), additional class rooms, more enrolment of chldren & provision for drinking and toilet facilities. Under Education Guarantee Scheme & Alternative and Innovative Education (EGS & AIE) scheme, an important component of SSA to bring out of school children in the fold of elementary education, 552461 out of school children are covered as on 18.10.2004. The gross enrolment ratio for classes l-V (6-11 years) and for classes l-VIII (6-14 years) is reported to be 86.83 and 73.85 respectively during the year 2002-03.

— During the last three years 5 Assamese books purchased by the Central Institute of Indian Languages under the Bulk Purchase Scheme and have been published in Assamese language.

IGNOU has established a FM Radio station under Gyan Vani Project in Guwahati; established study centres equipped with computers to provide access internet downlinking facilities.

Affairs of Gandhi Bhawan

39. SHRIMATI JAYA BACHCHAN: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware that Gandhi Bhawan located in the north campus of the Delhi University is being used more for the festivities, birthday parties and dance shows than the bonafide purposes for which it is meant as reported in the media recently;

(b) if so, what are the reasons therefor; and

(c) the steps Government have taken to ensure that the Bhawan is used for bonafide Durposes only?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI MD. ALI ASHRAF FATMI): (a) to (c) According to the information furnished by the University of Delhi, consequent upon appearance of certain allegations about the misuse of Gandhi Bhawan in a section of the Press, a Fact Finding Committee was constituted by the University. The report of this Committee has revealed that one of the Professors of the University had used the premises of the Gandhi Bhawan for organizing a private party in connection with the birthday celebration of his grandson. The permission for organizing this party was given by the
